

2010 Meeting of the Conference on Faith and History The Search for Peace, Justice and Equality

Student Conference
George Fox University, Newberg, Oregon
October 6-7, 2010

Key:

MLRC - Murdock Learning Resource Center
(Library)

Wednesday, October 6

6:30-7:30 p.m. Registration for both Undergraduate and Professional Conferences
Location: Student Union Building - Cap & Gown Room "A"

7:30-9:00 p.m. Plenary Session & Reception
Location: Student Union Building - Cap & Gown Room

Chair: Rick Kennedy, Point Loma Nazarene University

Plenary Address: David John Marley, Vanguard University.
"Why The World Needs Christian Historians"

Thursday, October 7

8:00-8:45 a.m. Registration for both Undergraduate and Professional Conferences
Location: Student Union Building - Cap & Gown Room "A"

8:30-9:45 a.m. Concurrent Panels

Session One—Panel A: American Politics During the 1960s

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 101 & 102

Chair: David John Marley, Vanguard University

"A Civil Rights Struggle: Martin Luther King, Jr. battles Malcolm X and Stokely Charmichael on the Exploitation of Civil Rights."

Craig Petrovich, Vanguard University

"In God We Trust? America's Religious Response to the Cold War Threat."

David Vazquez, Vanguard University

"Protestantism and the Election of 1960."

Thomas J. Carlson, Northwestern College

Session One—Panel B: Issues in American Women's History

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 103

Chair: Laura Gifford

“Patriotic Motherhood: The Ideals and Social Pressures That Defined Mothers on the Home Front During World War II.”

Adina Johnson, Northwestern College

“The White Ribbon Army’s: Politics and Race Relations of the Georgia Woman’s Christian Temperance Union from 1880 to 1907.”

Dalton Windham, Mercer University

9:45-10:15 a.m. Break (Location: Student Union Building - Executive Dining Room 228)

10:15- 11:30 a.m. Concurrent Panels

Session Two—Panel A: Religious Liberty in the Western World

Location: Student Union Building - Cap & Gown Room “A”

Chair: Jonathan Hartog

“The Commissioned Church: The Anabaptist View of the Church and the State.”

Richard Martin, Washburn University

“Change and Endurance in the Meanings of the Evangelists’ Symbols”

Abigail Sargent, Gordon College

Session Two—Panel B: Religion in America during the Progressive Era

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 101 & 102

Chair: John T. Scott, Mercer University

“The Social Gospel Synthesis of Jane Addams and the Catholic Christian Response: Competing Views of Charity and Their Implications.”

Brandon Harnish, Huntington University

“Irony and the Hope of Progress at the 1893 parliament of World Religions.”

Nathan Page, Point Loma Nazarene University

Session Two—Panel C: Muslim - Christian relations During the Middle Ages

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 103

Chair: Caitlin Corning, George Fox University

“The Hagia Sophia: Political and Religious Crossroads.”

Anne Taylor, Gordon College

“They think more of a rotten apple than of sermons’: Three Contemporary Perspectives on the Failure of the Preaching Campaign in Languedoc (1206-1207) and the Albigensian Crusade.”

Brent Miles, Seattle Pacific University

11:45 a.m. - 1:15pm Lunch (Location: Student Union Building - Cap & Gown)

1:30 - 2:45 p.m. Concurrent Panels

Session Three—Panel A: Liberation Theology in The Americas

Location: Student Union Building- Cap & Gown Room “A”

Chair: David John Marley, Vanguard University

“Boff Before Benedict: Liberation Theology and Papal Authority in Brazil.”

Charles Johnson, Grace College

“Liberation Theology in an Evangelical North American Milieu”

Gregory Williams, Geneva College

Session Three — Panel B: America During the Industrial Revolution

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 101 & 102

Chair: Jeff Webb, Huntington University

“Working the Streets: The Forgotten Children of the Industrial Revolution.”

Sarah Rice, Grace College

“Social Classes and Expectations During the Industrial Revolution.”

Allison Duncan, George Fox University

Session Three —Panel C: The Politics of Slavery

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 103

Chair: Jaeyoon Kim, Point Loma Nazarene University

“Was Slavery Dead? An examination of Ulrich B. Phillips’ traditional interpretation on American Slavery.”

Chris Fuerstnau, Point Loma Nazarene University

“John Brown: Failed Abolitionist and the Solution to the Slavery Stalemate.”
Douglas Ian Ferguson, Point Loma Nazarene University

2:45 - 3:15p.m.      Break (Location: Student Union Building - Executive Dining Room 228)

3:15-4:45 p.m.      Concurrent Panels

Session Four — Panel A: The American Civil War and Public History

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 101& 102

Chair: David John Marley, Vanguard University

“Reason, Providence and God: The Evolution of Abraham Lincoln’s Faith.”
Ariel Johnson, Northwestern College

“Justice in Life and Death: A Sensory History of Camp Sumter and its Impact on the American Cultural Concept of Death.”
Jennifer Fingles, Mercer University

“Public History, Historians, and the Search for Academic Equality.”
Anna Klatt, Grace College

Session Four — Panel B: The 20th Century World.

Location: MLRC - Multipurpose Room 103

Chair: Rick Kennedy, Point Loma Nazarene University.

“Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia and Historical Ankor”
Jordan Binkered, Huntington University

“Israeli Genocide in Sabra and Shatila?”
Jonathan Brenneman, Huntington University

“Wavell: The Soldier Viceroy of India”
Jandra Sutton, Huntington University