

Departmental Grant Application for Huntington University Communication Students

Please complete and return the following application by February 1st if you are interested in Huntington University's Communication Department.

Communication Grants are given to incoming students who declare Communication as their major. It is based on performance, and those who receive an award will be expected to participate in the Communication Department's different media opportunities (includes, but is not limited to, FUSE FM radio, HTV NEWS 22, "The Vision" Film group.)

Personal information

- Name _____ Phone _____
- Address _____

- Email address _____

Academic information

- High School _____
- Graduation date _____ G.P.A. _____
- SAT/ACT score _____ Class Rank _____
- Intended Major _____ Intended Minor _____
- Extracurricular activities _____

- Academic awards or honors _____

- Positions of leadership (church, school, community) _____

- Experience in the area of communications _____

Additional information

- Which field of communication are you most interested in and why? (Radio, Television, Video Production, Multimedia, Broadcast Journalism, Film) _____

- What do you feel you have to offer Huntington University's Communication Department? _____

- Where do you see yourself in 5 years? _____

- How would you describe your relationship with God? _____

- What do you hope to gain by attending a Christian liberal arts University? _____

- Describe one of the most creative and/or adventurous things you have done in your life. _____

- Additional comments: _____

Please enclose a recent photo, a one-page resume, and any video work you would like to submit (will not be returned) and mail to:

Huntington University
Office of Admissions
2303 College Avenue
Huntington, Indiana 46750

*For questions regarding this application or the Communication Department at Huntington, please contact Dr. Lance Clark at (260) 359-4281 or lclark@huntington.edu.