

Departmental Grant Application for Huntington University Digital Media Arts Students

Please complete and return the following application by February 1st if you are interested in the Communication Department and Digital Media Arts at Huntington University.

DMA Communication Grants are given to incoming students who declare Digital Media Arts as their major. It is based on performance, and those recipients will be expected to creatively assist the department during both the fall and spring semesters. Projects will be assigned by DMA faculty.

Personal information

- Name _____ Phone _____
- Address _____

- Email address _____

Academic information

- High School _____
- Graduation date _____ G.P.A. _____
- SAT/ACT score _____ Class Rank _____
- Intended Major _____ Intended Minor _____
- Extracurricular activities _____

- Academic awards or honors _____

- Positions of leadership (church, school, community) _____

- Experience in the area of communications _____

Additional information

- What digital media software are you familiar with? _____

- Which area of digital media are you most interested in and why (animation or film)? _____

- Where do you see yourself in 5 years? _____

- How would you describe your relationship with God? _____

- What do you hope to gain by attending a Christian liberal arts University? _____

- Describe one of the most creative and/or adventurous things you have done in your life. _____

- Additional comments: _____

Please enclose a recent photo, a one-page resume, and any media work or art you would like to submit (materials will not be returned) and mail to:

Huntington University
Office of Admissions
2303 College Avenue
Huntington, Indiana 46750

*For questions regarding this application or Digital Media Arts at Huntington, please contact Prof. Steve Leeper at (260) 359-4319 or sleeper@huntington.edu.