Davis Hall Follies

October 4, 7:00 & 9:30 PM
MCA Zurcher Auditorium

It's Huntington University's most sacred tradition. It's the one night of the year when HU's students, alumni, friends, faculty and staff come together for the best in song, dance, skits and some dazzling displays of creative genius. It's silly. It's dramatic. It's seriously funny. It's Davis Hall Follies.

Tickets: $3 General Admission

Ayiesha Woods

November 15, 7:30 PM
MCA Zurcher Auditorium

Coming to perform as part of the Conference on Christianity, Culture and Diversity in America, Ayiesha Woods is a contemporary Christian music phenomenon. This 26-year-old New York born artist won the 2004 Producer of the Year Award at The Caribbean Gospel Music Awards (also known as The Marlin Awards). She also was nominated for a Grammy Award in 2006 for Best Pop/Contemporary Gospel Album. Ayiesha gained national recognition with her debut album

"Introducing Ayiesha Woods" by Gotee Records and has recently released her sophomore album, "Love Like This."

Rhythm in Shoes

MCA Zurcher Auditorium

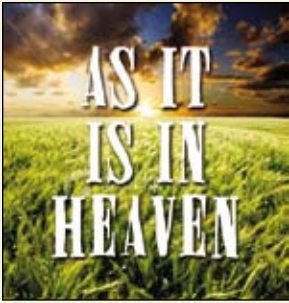

February 28, 7:30 PM

Rhythm in Shoes presents "Banjo Dance: A Celebration of American Spirit," a show comprised of the traditional music and dance of the Southern Appalachians. Flatfooting, clawhammering, banjo playing, fiddling, square dancing, sacred harp singing, story telling, honky-tonk songs, balladry, traditional and modern clogging all weave their way into this show that is uniquely American. Prepare for an evening of energy, excitement, delightful music and impressive dance!

Tickets: $18 Reserved Seating, $16 Seniors and Students, $5 HU Students, $16.50 HU Faculty/Staff

As It Is In Heaven

By Arlene Hutton

Directed by guest artist

Robin Higginbotham

MCA Studio Theatre

September 18-19, 7:30 PM

September 20, 2 & 7:30 PM

"A moving portrayal of upheaval caused when the utopian existence of the 1830s Shaker community in Kentucky is threatened by the arrival of 'newcomers' claiming to see angels...powerful and insightful...a thought-provoking piece."

- Lexington Herald-Leader

Tickets: $12 General Admission, $10 Students & Seniors, $6 13 & under, $5 HU Students, $9 HU Faculty/Staff

The Music Man

By Meredith Wilson

Directed by Jay Duffer

Choreographed by Melissa Duffer

Musical Direction by Drew Wutke

MCA Zurcher Auditorium

November 6-7, 7:30 PM

November 8, 2 & 7:30 PM

Confidence man Harold Hill arrives at staid River City intending to cheat the community with his standard scam of offering to equip and train a boys' marching band, then skip town with the money since he has no music skill. However, his plans go awry when he falls for the town librarian and inadvertently enriches the town with a love of music.

Tickets: $12 General Admission, $10 Students & Seniors, $6 13 & under, $5 HU Students, $9 HU Faculty/Staff

Brought to you by the

HUNTINGTON UNIVERSITY
THEATRE
COMPANY

Harvey

By Mary Chase

Directed by Michael Slane

MCA Studio Theatre

February 5-6, 7:30 PM

February 7, 2 & 7:30 PM

When Elwood P. Dowd starts to introduce his imaginary friend, Harvey, a six-and-a-half foot rabbit, to guests at a society party, his sister, Veta, has seen as much of his eccentric behavior as she can tolerate. She decides to have him committed to a sanitarium to spare her daughter Myrtle Mae and their family from future embarrassment. Problems arise, however, when Veta herself is mistakenly assumed to be on the verge of lunacy when she explains to doctors that years of living with Elwood's hallucination have caused her to see Harvey also!

Tickets: $12 General Admission, $10 Students & Seniors, $6 13 & under, $5 HU Students, $9 HU Faculty/Staff

Scapin

Adapted from Moliere

by Bill Erwin and

Mark O'Donnell

MCA Zurcher Auditorium

Directed by Jay Duffer

April 2-3, 7:30 PM

April 4, 2 & 7:30 PM

Vaudeville and Commedia dell'arte are seamlessly woven into an uproarious fable of scheming lovers, mistaken identities and clownish greedy servants. Balancing on a delicately taut tightrope of mischief and revenge, the crafty servant Scapin promises to help two pairs of wide-eyes lovers while juggling an array of elaborate disguises to keep their wealthy fathers from discovering the truth. Remaining true to Moliere's classic farcical tale from the seventeenth century, this fresh and side-splitting adaptation adds a late twentieth century spin to the language and hilarious non-stop action.

Tickets: $12 General Admission, $10 Students & Seniors, $6 13 & under, $5 HU Students, $9 HU Faculty/Staff

Shakesperience!

On the Dock (MCA Studio Theatre if raining)

October 4, 2:00 PM

If Shakespeare had a "greatest hits" DVD, this would be the live show! Many scholars agree that the closest thing to Shakespearean productions in the modern theatre is the musical. This idea has been taken to heart and developed into a simple concept show that fuses the musical theatre of today with the lively and robust theatre of Elizabethan England. The Educational Touring show of Huntington University Theatre Company's "Shakesperience!" will be on campus for Homecoming 2008.

Free Admission

December 5, 9:00 PM

December 6, 2:00 & 7:30 PM

MCA Studio Theatre

Presented by Theatre Ensemble

It is Christmas in New York, but for two young lovers, Jim and Della, the prospects are bleak, as both are out of work and penniless. But as those familiar with the famous O. Henry story are aware, their dilemma is solved when both part with their most precious possessions (she her beautiful long hair, he his heirloom pocket watch) in order to buy presents for each other thereby creating, at least for a magical moment, an aura of warmth and giving in the cold, impersonal winter city.

$2.00 General Admission
