If you should have any questions, please contact the Education Office at extension 4231.

ATTENTION EDUCATION MAJORS: If you have not been contacted by email to submit a survey regarding the J-Term practicum and plan to take the J-Term in January of 2006, please immediately contact Jenny Dickson, Director of Clinical Experiences by email at jdickson@huntington.edu

Summer 2006 Public Speaking: Trying to make all your classes fit? CO215 Public Speaking, which is a core requirement course, will be offered first summer term (May 17-June 2, 2006, with no class on Memorial Day) from 8:30-11:40 a.m. If you have any questions, contact Dr. Kevin Miller.

Study the life of Martin Luther King, Jr. and visit Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia during J-term, Hop On The Bus. This course covers the life and legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr. as well as trips to historic Civil Rights sites in the south. Meet history-makers and foot soldiers who took part in one of the most influential periods of time in American history. We will spend the first week on campus studying the life of MLK. The second week will be spent visiting The Lorraine Motel (where MLK was assassinated), Ole Miss (where a 48-hour civil war broke out over the entrance of an African-American student), Rosa Parks museum, Southern Poverty Law Center (organization dedicated to teaching and supporting tolerance), the Voting Rights Museum, 16th Street Baptist Church (where 4 little girls were killed in a church bombing), the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute and the King Center as well as several other historic sites. Cost for travel, food and lodging is $500. Deposits of $100 are due by November 1st. The balance will be due December 9th. If you have any questions, contact Jesse Brown (jbrown@huntington.edu or x4028) or Dr. Norris Friesen (nfriesen@huntington.edu or x4008).

J-TERM MARRIAGE CLASS. For couples who are engaged, planning to be engaged, or seriously dating. There will be an informational meeting about the class on Wednesday, October 26. Meeting will be at 7:30 pm in Loew 275. At least one person from each couple should attend. If you are interested but cannot be at the meeting, please contact Dr. Steve Lee by phone (ext. 4241) or email (slee@huntington.edu). If you are not sure if this class is a good idea for you and your partner, check it out!

The Enterprise Resource Center is looking for you!! We still have a lot of amazing opportunities to offer students! Check out our opportunities: Contact Lora at X 4310 if you have any questions.

TRIP TO THE HOLY LAND – ISRAEL - Are you interested in spending January's J-Term in Israel? The Bible and Religion Department is organizing a study tour of the Holy Land for about two weeks in January 2006. We are planning to tour Bethlehem, Jerusalem, Caesarea, Samaria, Nazareth, Galilee, Jericho, the Dead Sea, Negev, Egypt and several other places. If you are interested in this trip and want additional information contact Prof. Fairchild by email or phone (4235).

Visit the Florida Everglades in January as part of the new J-Term course, American Environmental History! The course covers topics in North American natural history and ecology from the pre-Colombian period to the present, including changing patterns of land use, economic development and natural resource appropriation, changing forest and wetlands biomes, and environmental ethics. Special attention will be given to concepts in Christian environmental stewardship. The eight-day field experience in Everglades and Biscayne National Parks features close study of wetlands and coastal ecologies, so students should be prepared for hiking, canoeing, snorkeling, sailing, camping, and other outdoor activities. Total cost for travel, food, lodging, and other expenses is $350. Non-refundable deposits of $100 must be paid to the Business Office by November 1st, and final balance is due December 9th. Course enrollment is limited to 15 students. If you have any questions, contact the course instructor, Dr. Jeffrey Webb, at jwebb@huntington.edu or 359-4243.

Outdoor Environmental Education - Do you want to spend a delightful January in balmy southern Michigan? Do you want the opportunity to work with sixth graders in a residential camp setting? Then this announcement is for you! If you are interested in taking this January course, you should see Dr. Bordeaux in Science Hall, SH382, call ext. 4204, or email wbordeaux@huntington.edu. Enrollment is limited so be sure to check this out if you are interested.

IDJ121 Katrina Relief Effort Professor Jule McKanna and Martha Smith. Would you like to spend January Term serving others in the hurricane ravaged south? Students in this non-credit course will spend two weeks in the Gulf Coast areas hit by Hurricane Katrina helping people who have had their lives turned upside-down. No special skills are required except for a willing attitude and helpful heart. Projects may include construction, distribution of food, tree removal, clearing debris, and lending a sympathetic ear. No credit will be given for this course, but it will fulfill one January term requirement. Max: 75 Fee: $125, Advance Deposit $50 due December 1, Grading: S-U

HU THEATER COMPANY

1940's Radio Hour

by Walton Jones

MCA Zurcher Auditorium

November 10, 11 – 7:30p.m.

November 12 – 2:00 & 7:30p.m.

Educational matinee – Nov 11 – 9:30a.m.

directed by David Shamburger

A different time is evoked in this marvelously theatrical and winning show, a live broadcast of a The Mutual Manhattan Variety Cavalcade from the Hotel Astor's Algonquin Room on December 21, 1942. The spirit of that bygone era when the world was at war and pop music meant "Strike Up the Band" and "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" (both are in this show) is accurately captured as the harassed producer copes with a drunk lead singer, the delivery boy who wants a chance in front of the mike, the second banana who dreams of singing a ballad, and the trumpet playing sound effects man who chooses a fighter plane over Glenn Miller.

SAB INFO: Olympiad – November 10-13 – check with your RA to get involved - don't miss the fun!
