Grandparents Day at Huntington University will be April 25! Your grandparents will be invited for day full of activities, including joining you for chapel, lunch, and even a class! So far, we have over 50 names and addresses but we need more! Look for the Grandparents Day table in the DC during lunch on the 20th, 22nd, and 24th!

JMC On-Going Programs! Have a few hours free on Wednesday night?? Come to Bingo Buddies... we meet at 6:15 in the upper DC! So many good laughs, and it really puts life into perspective! We're going to be old someday too! Like Marge, who tries to steal prizes; Wayne, who rhymes everything (B 7...who's going to heaven?); Addy, who grins the biggest you've ever seen when she gets a bingo; Ralene and her roomie "Irmie" (Irma)...think a couple of roomies in Hardy Hall plus 65 years or so...amazing!!...and Connie, the together one who knows what's going on, and laughs at the others. Plus, lots more of random people. These people are no different from us; they just have a few years on us!

The Huntington Library is looking for students to help with the tutoring program. This volunteer position would be working with adults interested in earning their GED, learning how to read, and other various educational areas. Hours are flexible! Interested? Call Hallie Selig at the Huntington Library 356-0824

Do you play lead guitar? Are you looking for a summer job? If you answered YES to both of these questions, then contact Prof. Mike Burnett (mburnett@huntington.edu) The Admissions and Departments of Theatre and Music are sending a Musical Theatre troupe to tour the country this summer. With over 50 performances, this tour will be a great way to spend your summer honing your God-given gifts while spreading the gospel through song and drama. If this sounds like something you are up for, let us know!!!
