

Mark your calendars!!!

In just a few short weeks, you will begin your college adventure at Huntington University with Orientation 2009. Our orientation program is designed to help you adjust academically, personally, socially, and spiritually.

We want to help you understand necessary policies and procedures while familiarizing you with campus services and opportunities. And of course, we can't forget the importance of having you meet faculty, staff and other students!

Orientation starts on Thursday, August 27 for international students. Check in at 12:00 noon in the upper level of the Habecker Dining Commons International students should attend the all students Orientation that officially begins with a New Student Dedication Service at 6:30 PM in the MCA Auditorium.

Attendance at Fall Orientation is Expected!!

If you have extenuating circumstances that make attendance impossible please contact Margaret Pasko at 260.359.4026 or mpasko@huntington.edu.

Are you wondering if parents and other family members are welcome during orientation? YES, they are! However, due to the limited seating in the MCA Auditorium, we ask each student to bring no more than 2 guests to the New Student Dedication Service on Friday evening.
