

Dayton, Ohio, May 1, 1908;

Dear Bro. Howe;

Dr. Wood is acting nobly on the College debt. I think it will succeed. Of course I expect to one that will give $25,

Unless more of a missionary spirit gets into the capable preachers of our old conferences, some of our frontier fields must go down. Lost territory is hard to regain. I do not think there is much missionary spirit toward North West Mission, it soon oozed out. Your brother,
Milton Wright,
