

I think the former African Missionary might do well if; 1. If he stands less a dictator to the Board, 2. If he can promote Wilberforce and wife instead of driving them away. I do not think his training and style would be popular in our conferences as a pastor; it lacks cheer and inspiration. He would suit me, but not our people,