Messages and Papers of the Presidents

Edited by the HON. JAMES D. RICHARDSON, Under the direction of Congress.

"I regard 'Messages and Papers of the Presidents' as one of the most solid and valuable contributions to our political and historical literature."

WM. L. WILSON,
Ex-Postmaster General.

A HISTORY of the United States should form the nucleus of every American citizen's library. With grave questions of public policy to be settled at the ballot box within the next few years, it will be found necessary to study closer than ever those crises from which the nation has in the past emerged ever triumphant. This history should be as authoritative as possible. Ordinarily we get the story of our country from the point of view of one man, and one whose ideas have never influenced the events of which he writes.

In MESSAGES AND PAPERS OF THE PRESIDENTS we have word for word from the makers of our history the burning sentences which have declared wars, the thoughtful, profound utterances which have guided the Ship of State into the quiet waters of Prosperity and Progress—all of them milestones marking the path of our progress toward the grand destiny which unfolds before us as a nation. What could be more sublime—more prophetic—than the words of the immortal Lincoln, when he said:

"We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained, it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union, when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature."—First Inaugural Address.

Is it not an advantage—a power—to have TEN VOLUMES of this sort of history at your elbow?

Congress had this in mind in authorizing the publication of this great work, and in appropriating the necessary amount to defray the initial expenses.

The Hon. AINSWORTH R. SPOFFORD, of the Congressional Library, has accepted the position of General Secretary of the Committee appointed to distribute the work. The Committee on Distribution has undertaken to distribute the work at a trifle over the cost of manufacture and distribution. If it is necessary to increase the price to meet expenses, it will be done later, but not on applications received at once.

A postal card request for full particulars, addressed as below, will bring ample descriptive matter and full instructions for making applications.

On all requests accompanied by a deposit of ONE DOLLAR a set of the books will be laid aside and reserved pending further investigation, and if you decide within ten days not to make a regular application for the work, the amount will be refunded. Address
