We Want to See

More interest manifested in Our 1900 Calendar and Year Book than any previous year. The sales of our 1899 year book did not amount to the cost of publishing it. Brethren, this ought not to occur. We devote much time to securing statistics and other interesting matter and the expense of compiling and publishing this book is considerable. We have made an effort this year to put out a year book that will be worth several times the cost of it to every purchaser. Show your appreciation of our efforts by sending in your order for one or more copies.
