

Our Dead.

We make the most kindly but positive request that no obituary exceed 140 words. On decease of ministers an article in memoriam may be written to be published in the correspondence department. Poetry is not admissible.

Charles Stewart Seems was born May 14, 1902, and died Oct. 3, 1902, aged 4 months and 18 days. May God bless the sorrowing parents.

E. W. FLICKINGER.

Infant Daughter of William and Emma Guilinger of Stryker, Ohio, died Nov. 12, 1902, aged 28 days. Funeral by the writer at the home. God bless the bereft ones.

G. F. HALL.

Rosila B. Roach, wife of Robert B. Roach, was born in Canada, March 6, 1860, and died at her home in Monroe county, Michigan, Nov. 8, 1902, aged 42 years, 8 months and 2 days. Sister Roach was a great but patient sufferer and left an excellent evidence of her acceptance of God. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn their loss. May the Lord bless the sorrowing husband and children.

E. W. FLICKINGER.

Eldrid, son of Rev. Wm. B. and Orpha McMunn, was born at Taylorville, Ill., Aug. 27, 1902, died at place of birth Nov. 22, 1902, aged 2 months and 25 days. On Saturday, Nov. 15, he was taken with pneumonia fever, which lasted one week, at the end of which time he died. We extend sympathy to our beloved elder and his companions in their bereavement, and point them to him who, though he hath plucked from the terrestrial, hath planted this little bud in the heavenly clime. The funeral was held at Mound Chapel, Nov. 23, at 11 a. m., conducted by Rev. D.W. Hamilton, assisted by the writer. Interment at Mound Cemetery.

B. F. FARRIS.

Delphia Adaline Allebaugh, daughter of Rev. N. Allebaugh and wife, died November 13, 1902, aged 24 years, 1 month and 28 days. She was married to Pearly Waters, March 10, 1898. She was converted and joined the U. B. church about twelve years ago under the labors of Rev. J. Guyn. She was a faithful servant of God. She had much sunshine in her disposition and bore her afflictions patiently. She knew the end was near and complacently submitted all to God. She shouted aloud the praises of God, and said the glory in her soul was like unto the glory of the morning sun. She leaves a father, mother, sister, two brothers, a husband and darling babe to mourn her early departure. Funeral by the writer in Avlon U. B. church, Perry county, Ohio. Bros J. C. Beery and H. B. Tuttle, assisted in the services. The lovely flowers at the funeral were the tokens of esteem of many donors.

J. W. BURTON.

Elizabeth Grim, consort of Samuel Grim, was born in Washington county, Maryland, December 2, 1830; died in Woodland township, Carroll county, Illinois, October 19, 1902, aged 71 years, 10 months and 17 days. She was married to Samuel Grim March 25, 1851. Her maiden name was Lambert. To them were born five sons, two having died in infancy, three surviving her. She came with her husband to Carroll county, Illinois, in March, 1855, where she resided until the day of her death.

She was converted in a meeting held in the old Woodland school-house, conducted by Enos Collins in February, 1857. She united with the United Brethren church shortly afterward, in which she lived a true, faithful and devoted Christian until the Lord called her home. She was kind and hospitable. She was incessant in caring for and entertaining those who come into her home. Never satisfied on quarterly meetings and other occasions until she knew that all were provided and cared for. She will be greatly missed in this regard. She was spiritually minded, always enjoyed a spiritual meeting. Though unlettered she was gifted in testimony and especially in prayer. She was greatly afflicted, and suffered much for many years, but she bore it as patiently as could be expected under the circumstances. For several days before her exit, the long strain on her nerves enfeebled her mind and she was flighty at intervals, but her faith was stayed on God to the last, and died trusting in God, and is now in the enjoyment of the saints' rest in heaven. Services conducted by E. E. Plumley, pastor.
