

Not Dead, But Sleepeth

A. H. Baldwin of Montpelier, Ohio, only brother of A. B. Baldwin of North Ohio conference, passed away June 11, 1914, after a long illness. He was an influential business man of Montpelier, and was employed by the Wabash Railroad for a number of years. He secured the right of way of the Chicago and Toledo division of that road. He was sixty-nine years of age. This leaves Rev. Baldwin alone, his father, mother, brothers and sisters all having gone on before. He is waiting for the Master to come and gather him with those who have passed away.

EMMA BALDWIN.

Julia A. Hoyt was born March 30, 1846 in the township of Conway, Livingston, Michigan, and died at Tyrone, Michigan, June 8, 1914, at the age of 68 years, 2 months, 9 days. On January 24, 1866, she was united in marriage to Martin Kinzie and lived in Livingston county, until 1889 when she moved to Shiawassee county, living there six years, after which she moved to Tyrone, Michigan, where she spent the remainder of her days. In early life she sought the Lord, and joined with the United Brethren church at Conway. She was a loving mother and faithful wife, and in her hours of suffering, her faith in God sustained her. Funeral services were held in Conway United Brethren church. Prayer and benediction by Rev. R. Cunningham. Sermon by the writer.

REV. S. G. HALL.

Charlotte Goodwin (nee Barber) was born in Albany county, New York state, February 22, 1838, and died at her home in Van Wert, Van Wert county, Ohio, May 30, 1914, aged 75 years, 3 months and 8 days. She was united in marriage to Benjamin Goodwin January 2, 1859. In October, 1859, she was converted under the labors of Rev. George Holden, and joined the United Brethren church, where Elgin, Ohio, now is, as a charter member. She has been a constant sufferer all through life. Too much could not be said, as to her loyalty to God, loyalty to her home, and loyalty to her church. It may be said of her as of one of old; she hath done what she could. Sister Goodwin was an equal donor in the gift of ten thousand dollars to build a new United Brethren church house in the city of Van Wert, Ohio. Her latest expression was, that she was ready for the voyage across the narrow stream. Her longing desire was that she might live to see the church house completed, that her funeral could be held in the new church, which is near completion. Her funeral will be at a later date in the church. Burial service was conducted at the home. She leaves an aged husband and many relatives to mourn. Services conducted by J. Freeman, pastor, assisted by Rev. C. Weyer, Rev. J. M. Sherer and Rev. S. P. Overholtz. Interment in the Woodland cemetery.

J. FREEMAN.

Rebecca Meriman Dimitt was born in Bourbon county, Kentucky, October 1, 1835 when she was but twelve years of age, she joined the Methodist church. Later she joined the United Brethren church in Christ in which she continued to be a faithful member until death. In 1843 she with her parents moved to Howard county, Indiana. On March 30, 1853, she was married to Matthias Chitwood and during the following year, they came to Richland county, Wisconsin. On December 15, 1905, Mr. Chitwood passed to the great beyond after which she remained with her son, LeRoy on the farm until the year of 1912, when they left the farm and moved to Blue River, Wisconsin; here she resided until the time of her death, June 1, 1914, at the age of 78 years, 8 months and 6 days. She leaves to mourn their loss, three sons, two daughters and many friends. Funeral preached by her pastor.

REV. G. A. ADAMS.

Mary E. Fisher was born in Richland county, Ohio, August 28, 1859 and departed this life near Frontier, Michigan, June 15, 1914, aged 54 years, 7 months and 17 days. She was united in marriage to A. B. St. John, December 4, 1881. To this union were born three children, one son and two daughters, who survive her. She gave her heart to God thirty years ago and united with the United Brethren church at Olive Branch, Pioneer circuit, later moving her membership to South Reading on Montgomery circuit; she remained a faithful Christian until her Master called her to her reward. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, a son, two daughters, two sisters, having preceded her to the great beyond, three brothers, and besides these a host of friends. The family has suffered the great loss of a devoted wife and mother; the church, a faithful worker; the vicinity, a kind neighbor. Funeral conducted at Frontier, Michigan, by Rev. J. G. Connor assisted by Rev. J. M. McMillen. Interment in cemetery near by.

Delia Bruner Ridley was born December 26, 1841, in Sandusky county, Ohio, died April 15, 1914 in Fremont, Ohio, aged 72 years, 3 months, 19 days. She was married to Rev. John Ridley, a member of Sandusky conference, January 17, 1861. Besides the husband, two daughters and three sons survive. She was a loving wife and mother, devotedly attached to her children and they to her. She was a life long member of the old United Brethren church and a member for years of the Sandusky Union Holiness association and a regular attendant at the Porage campmeeting. With her the struggles and dangers are past. No doubt she lovingly awaits for her loved ones to meet her. Funeral at the home in Fremont, Ohio, conducted by the writer.

E. L. DAY.

William W. Kohn was born June 9, 1888, died May 5, 1914, in Toledo, Ohio, where he resided. He leaves father, mother, one sister, one brother and many friends. Funeral at the home conducted by the writer.

E. L. DAY.

Ward Edwin Anderson, son of Clinton and Lillian Anderson, born March 12, 1913, and died March 23, 1914, aged one year, 11 days. He leaves to mourn a father, mother, two brothers, two grandfathers, two grandmothers, seven uncles and aunts, and a host of relatives and friends. Services at M. E. church at Moats by writer.

E. D. SCHAD.

Ernest Vern Anderson, son of Clinton and Lillian Anderson, born February 8, 1911, at Hicksville, Ohio, died June 15, 1914, at Ney, Ohio, aged 3 years, 4 months, 7 days. He leaves father, mother, brother, two grandfathers and grandmothers, aunts, uncles, cousins and many relatives and friends to mourn his departure, but God in his wisdom knows best. A baby brother preceded him to the great beyond March 23, 1914. Services held at Moats M. E. church.

E. D. SCHAD.

Lewis Copeland was born in Henry county, Indiana, March 23, 1836, died at the home-stead near Warrington, Indiana, May 28, 1914, aged 78 years, 2 months and 5 days. He was united in marriage to Louisa Allen, September 15, 1859. To this union were born five children, four of whom are living. His companion died September 27, 1901. He was again united in marriage to Catharine Burch, November 1, 1906, who with his four children, one brother, one sister, and many other friends are left to mourn. He united with the Friends church about ten years ago and lived and died in the Christian faith. Funeral services conducted by the writer in the M. E. church at Wilkerson, Indiana and interment at Greensborough cemetery.

HALLRECK FLOYD.

Milton Curtis Miller was born in the township of Conway, Livingston county, Michigan, October 3, 1867, and died May 27, 1914, at Niles, Michigan, aged 48 years, 7 months, 24 days. He remained in Conway until twenty-one or twenty-two years ago, and attended school at Valparaiso, Indiana. Here he became acquainted with Miss Emma Lubeka of Manitowish, Wisconsin, and was married in 1896. They resided in Conway about two years. He was the father of one son now living at Manitowish, Wisconsin. He leaves to mourn one son, a father, brother, sister and other relatives. Funeral services conducted in the Conway United Brethren church by Rev. S. G. Hall.

John Wesley Phares was born in Shelby county, Indiana, January 6, 1837 where he lived until grown to manhood, and where most of the family still reside. He was united in marriage with Samantha Carmony on November 21, 1861, and moved to Howard county in 1873. Five children were born to this union, who survive him, except one, who died April 24, 1909. After sixteen years of happy wedlock his wife was called home, and on September 16, 1884, he was married to Mrs. Eleanor Miller. They lived happily together for thirty years, and one child was added to the family, Hazel Maria. Early in life Brother Phares manifested a religious spirit, and sought a church home in the United Brethren church at Blue River chapel, Shelby county, and lived a pure and true Christian to the end. Since March, 1873, he resided with his family near Greentown, at which place he died on June 24, 1914, aged 77 years, 4 months and 28 days, and leaves to mourn the loss of a kind father and ideal Christian, his four children and a large number of neighbors and friends, by whom he was beloved. Rev. A. L. Stanley of the United Brethren church preached the funeral sermon, with Rev. C. E. Crider of the M. E. church assisting, in the M. E. church, Greentown, Indiana.

Sarah J. Hyatt was born in Covington, Virginia, April 8, 1813. She departed this life March 25, 1914, having lived 80 years, 11 months and 17 days. She was united in marriage to Benjamin Cramer in 1856. To this union were born five children. Her husband passed from this life in February of 1888, since that time and indeed for the last fifty-five years of her life she has resided in the old homestead now the home of her son William. Her general health has been very good considering her advanced years. And her trusting patient faith in God was beautiful to see. In a recent conversation with her pastor she expressed her devotion to her Savior and her joy in the hope that she would soon see him face to face. Deceased was an honored member of the church of the United Brethren in Christ. She leaves to mourn their loss: four children, ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren and one nephew. Services were held at the home conducted by her pastor, Mrs. Jessie Gould. The text used being the same as was used on the occasion of her husband's death by request, 2nd Tim. 4th chapter and 7th, 8th and 9th verses. Mr. and Miss Gould, Mrs. Mead and Mr. Striker at request of the relatives sang the old songs grandma loved. Interment at the Striker cemetery.

J. E. GOULD.
