We are very anxious that the conditions which Brother Null has made shall be met. About the first thing when we receive the Conservator is to look for your report of funds received for this interest. May God bless the old church.

Dear Brother: Enclosed find five dollars for the New Publishing House. Very sincerely yours,
J. K. Lenhorr.

Pleasant Grove, Rivarre Circuit,
Feb. 22, 1915.

Dear Brother Mason: I liked the article in The Conservator by W. A. Oler. And now with regard to your plan for raising the balance needed for the New Publishing House by each subscriber giving one dollar is surely a very easy proposition, and should not be disregarded. I for one will double a dollar several times and make it five dollars, and John A. Mumma gives one dollar, Miss Permilla Mumma one dollar, and Rebecca Harkless one dollar; total $8.00. Please find enclosed P. O. order for eight dollars. I hope the needed balance will be secured at once. Yours for the New Building in 1915, John H. Mumma.

Junction City, O., Feb. 22, 1915.

Rev. E. C. Mason.

Dear Sir: Please find enclosed my dollar to help a little on our New Building. With wishes for success, I beg to remain, yours respectfully,

Praying God's blessing upon all of your efforts for the advancement of His kingdom, I remain yours in His name,

Rev. S. N. Shoemaker.

Tiffin, O., Feb. 22, 1915.

E. C. Mason.

Brother in Jesus: Enclosed you will find one dollar for the Printing Establishment, and I wish it could be many more times, that amount. My father and mother were United Brethren of the old style. If I should live until the second day of next May 1 will be eighty-five years old. At the time of the division of the church it did not take me more than two minutes to decide which side I was on. And so today I have a title clear to an inheritance in the skies. Bye and bye in the morning, when the saints are gathering home, we will tell the story how we overcame, for we will understand better bye and bye.

Elizabeth Springer.

Bremen, O., Feb. 24, 1915.

Dear Brother Mason: Enclosed you will please find a money order for $5.00 for the New Publishing House. We remain your brother and sister in Christ,

Notice

I would like to sell my house and two lots on Beecher St., in Adrian, Mich., to some United Brethren family. My property is one block from our church. My property is a 165 ft. square, with all kinds of fruit and berries on it, and well fenced, a good well of water and a barn. The house is a seven room house with gas and electric lights. Property in good repair. My reason for selling it, is that I want to complete my Theological Course at Ubee, Huntington, Indiana.
