Charles Williams Myers, son of Isaac and Sarah Myers, was born in Marion County, Ohio, Feb. 25, 1867, and died July 20, 1930, aged 73 years, 4 months, and 25 days. He located near Kossuth, Ohio, and later at Spenserville, Ohio, where he was engaged in different activities, principally in importing horses from France. He was an expert judge of a horse. He was noted for his liberality to the needy. He was well to do at one time in his life. He was highly respected by all who knew him and considered a gentleman. He leaves one son of Peru, Ind., one daughter, Mrs. Van Robinson, of Spencerville, Ohio, four grandchildren, two nephews, and three nieces to mourn. The funeral service was held in the New Salem Church, near Monticello, Ohio, conducted by Rev. J. M. Sherer. Interment was in the New Salem Cemetery.

Mary L. Hagaman, daughter of George and Catherine Burgh, was born in Steuben Co., Ind., Jan. 29, 1850, and departed this life at her home in Hillsdale, Mich. July 6, 1930, at the age of 80 years, 5 months, and 7 days. Death followed an illness of several months, due to paralysis. August 22, 1867 she was united in marriage with A. H. Tussing. To this union one daughter, Jennie May, was born. Mr. Tussing passed away Nov. 8, 1903, and the daughter Jennie, followed him in death Sept. 28, 1906. On March 23, 1916, she was united in marriage with Rev. Wm. Hagaman who preceded her in death Mar. 27, 1927. His sudden death was a shock to all, he being drowned. He was a graduate of the Spencerville High School and during the past year he was a student at the Good Year Industrial University at Akron, Ohio, making good in every way. His kind and unassuming disposition won him many friends. In February, 1925, he with a number of his Sunday school class was converted and joined the United Brethren Church at Monticello, Ohio, under the labors of Rev. Chas. Weyer, where he was a highly esteemed member at the time of his death. We all saw a great future for Matt; but how suddenly our hopes were blasted and we were made to wonder why he had to be taken. His work was done and God said, Come. The large congregation of people that met to show respects, showed their love for this young life. Matt is gone but not forgotten; his life will live on among his associates. He leaves a father, a step-mother, one brother, three half-sisters, and one step-sister, and many other relatives and friends to mourn his sudden departure.
