PELOUBET'S NOTES.

An Illustrative Illuminating Commentary on the International Sunday-school Lessons for 1897.

The International Lessons for 1897 are entirely in the New Testament, covering both the Acts and the Epistles, and are peculiarly adapted for teaching by the illustrative method. Dr. Peloubet has, therefore, with great skill and careful judgment, brought together from many sources such anecdotes, illustrations, and incidents as would serve to make the teachings clear to the mind and adapted to present-day living.

His treatment of the many doctrinal lessons based upon Paul's affirmation and enunciation of principles of the Christian's life will commend itself to every thoughtful reader, and make this volume well worthy of a permanent place in every Sunday-school workers' library.

The publishers have outwitted all previous issues by devoting unlimited time and expense in illustrating every lesson with beautiful original cuts, and adding much to the permanent value of the book by inserting a number of full-page pictures of Bible scenes.

Price, postpaid, $1.00. Address, W. J. SHUEY, Dayton, Ohio.

STEREOPTICONS and MAGIC LANTERNS.

Churches and Sunday schools can provide interesting entertainments, and the pastor can give illustrated addresses, with the help of a good lantern or stereopticon. We are prepared to quote prices on different styles and on slides, representing an infinite variety of subjects. Correspondence solicited. Address W. J. SHUEY, Dayton, Ohio.
