

CARES Act Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund Reporting Disclosure - ARPA

Huntington University has received funding through the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) and will use $1,384,501 of those funds to provide emergency financial aid grants to students, as mandated by the Act. The University received access to the funds from the Department of Education on May 19, 2021.

On July 9, 2021, the University notified 449 enrolled students with expected family contributions for 2021-2022 within a Pell eligible range that they will receive a $2,000 grant from the ARPA funds. This will account for approximately 50% of the available funds.

Notification to all students regarding the remaining funds will be posted to the official COVID-19 page on the University website and in the student daily digest on July 12, 2021. The notification is located on the website at this link: <https://www.huntington.edu/university-relations/covid-19-updates>.

As of June 30, 2021, $6,400 of the funds were distributed to 2 eligible students who requested assistance through an online form on the University portal webpage. Awards were made to eligible students using a rubric to measure the financial need caused by coronavirus. Awards were made via check or application to the student account if requested.

Remaining funds will be awarded to eligible students using the method described above.
