

Application for Theatre Arts Department Grant Academic Year 2020-2021

Please submit all application materials to the Department of Theatre Arts by March 1, 2020, or bring materials with you to an in-person audition and/or interview at one of the following events:

- Ohio Thespians Unified Auditions – January 11, 2020
- Indiana Thespians State Conference (College Auditions) – January 25, 2020
- Huntington University Music & Theatre Audition Day – February 3 or 17, 2020
- Southeastern Theatre Conference Annual Convention (Undergraduate Auditions) – February 27, 2020

You must be accepted to Huntington University and declare a theatre major or minor to be eligible for this grant. If you have applied but not yet been accepted to Huntington University, your grant application will be held on file until your application has been fully processed.

All grant recipients will be required to work five hours each week for the costume shop, scene shop, or public relations office, or as an office assistant. Recipients are expected to take leadership roles in production assignments and are required to attend specific work calls. Recipients are always expected to be highly visible as role models, demonstrating excellence in all aspects of departmental activities. A minimum 2.7 GPA must be maintained.

Students intending to pursue a Theatre Performance major are required to audition for a representative of the Theatre Arts Department. Video submissions may be accepted with permission from the Department Chair. Students intending to pursue a Theatre Technology major are required to interview with a representative of the Theatre Arts Department and submit a portfolio displaying their work (digital submissions are acceptable). Students wishing to pursue one of the Theatre (General) majors or a Theatre minor may choose to audition OR interview, depending on their primary area of interest.

The following items must be included with this application form for your application to be processed:

1. A cover letter introducing yourself.
2. A theatre résumé including productions you've been in, the parts/jobs you've held, and the production dates (beginning with the most recent). Also include any relevant talents or abilities that the Theatre Arts Department would otherwise not know about.
3. Letter(s) of recommendation from a drama teacher, community director, etc. who could honestly evaluate your theatre abilities. (At least one letter of recommendation is required.)

For more information on Theatre Arts Department grant auditions or interviews, including requests to submit video auditions or digital portfolio items, please contact Department Chair Ryan Long at rlong@huntington.edu or (260) 359-4257.
